Important to Parents.

WINER'S

CANADIAN VERMIFUGE

A CERTAIN REMEDY FOR WORMS.

THIS remedy is safe in its operation and more easily administered than any other.

THE GREATEST CAUSE OF DEATH among children is to be attributed to Worms They give rise to numerous diseases, and are the more fatal because least suspected; were parents to give them an just more attention, and carefully observe the symptoms which indicate the existence of worms in bowels, the lives of many children would no doubt be saved. Some of the symptoms are as follows the countenance is of a pale or leaden color, mixed with occasional flushes, the eyes are heavy and dull, bad breath, itching in the nostrils the sleep is disturbed, the patient often awakening in great fright, and is liable to starting and grinding the teeth, the appetite is irregular in the beginning from a craving and at other times variable, occasional vomiting, &c

Winer's Canadian Vermifuge has acquired a reputation unknown to that of any other medicine of the kind, and is daily increasing in popularity wherever it is known and used, it is universally approved; it possesses properties which no other article of the kind does, is more prompt and efficient in its action, and entirely free from ingredients which have any but a beneficial effect, the health of the patient being always improved even when no worms are discovered Physicians prescribe it, and to use the language of one in high standing, who resides in Clearvisland, Ohio, consider it "the only article of the kindthat ever saw that was so uniform and prompt in expelling worms" it may indeed be relied on with the utmost confidence, as it has never been known to fail; this is the reason why all who have used it will not use any other

We have in our possession a number of certificates from physicians and others of the highest respectability who all testify to its superior efficacy, and recommend it as a never failing remedy

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

We, the undersigned, have frequently administered a medicine prepared by Mr John Winer of this town designated "J Winer's Canadian Vermifuge," and being fully satisfied with its efficacy, confidently recommend it as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the intestinal canal G O'REILLY,

New York, March 30th 1847

Messrs J Winer & Co. Sirs—My child of five years of age was for more than two years severely afflicted with worms, during which time we gave her different medicines recommended in such cases but they produced no beneficial effects I at length procured a bottle of your Canadian Vermifuge and gave it to her which caused her to pass a large number of worms, since then she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health From my own experience, I would recommend your Vermifuge as being the most safe and effectual remedy for worms now in use, Yours truly,

C G SNETHEN, 30 Remsen st,

FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1848.

☞ The recent yielding of Gen Cass in his letter relating to the subject of slavery—his bidding for the Presidency, has caused the slave interest at the South to demand still further concessions They demand now that in order to prevent all uncertainty or mistake that slavery shall be established by law and rendered a leading interest in territories, in order to secure its toleration in the State, the first thing to be done, in the organization of territorial governments, must be to disfranchise those who are now citizens—that is, all the Spaniards of mixed blood all the blacks, and all the Indians and all the various combinations of colors must be excluded from the polls, else they would tend to the territorial Legislature or the State Convention, which shall frame the State Constitution, and the State Legislature a large majority who will be opposed to the establishment of African slavery Now that the American congress can be allowed to vote because all the Mexicans are on equal footing and opposed to the institution of slavery as established here In that way only would the projects of Mr Dickinson and Mr Cass be available for the purpose of securing the establishment of African slavery in territory to be acquired

If the past is any guaranty of the future, there can be no doubt but that Mr Cass or Mr Dickinson and various other locofoco presidential candidates from the free States will march up to the new requirement and go the doctrine with a rush

It is indeed marvellous this pliability of the loco party They can denounce the annexation of Texas and then to a man go for it They can scout the idea of war and then throw up their caps for war They can scorn the thought of seeking for territory and yet go forward to grasp it. They can decry all desire of subjugating Mexico and yet send troops to do the work. They can talk one way and act another They can approve to day what they disapprove to morrow They can go all ways and change their creeds and doctrines as easily as other men can their garments They have no principles that are deemed worthy a moment's thought if any other thing will better assist a their party's power The exercise of power is the great, absorbing idea of the loco party and to this they make all else yield

The exhibition of the Universalist Sabbath School on Thursday evening, was admirably executed Rev Mr Nye has great resources of skill in the training of the children, and youth and a happy instruction He awakens every power within them and then inspires them with a self confidence that enables them to go before a large audience with all embarrassment This can only be accomplished without labor and by this labor on the part of teacher and pupil they have unusually won great credit Such exhibitions are not only very pleasant but they do much to keep up a lively interest in the school and call the attentions of their visitors to the value of sabbath schools

Messrs Leonard Scott & Co are very prompt in the issue of their republications of the several important European works and among them is this an excellent and excellent monthly

The December number is now before us and opens with an article on Ralph Waldo Emerson which cannot fail to attract general attention

The following is the table of contents of this number —

This is the closing number of the volume and of course that is a favorable opportunity to commence taking the work, and the reprint of Messrs Leonard Scott & Co is just what the American reader wants in every respect not omitting—price

☞ We have received the third number of Grimly and McGrath's republication of Ewbank's Hydraulics and Mechanics It is a work of high interest, can be purchased at twenty five cents a number and is just the book for a family as it will interest every member of it and convey information to each and all

☞ All those who like those choice times which nutrished the hearts of their Grandfathers and which all the old remember with so much pleasure —all who would receive a little of that sort of music and partake of melody instead of science, should step into Col Bugbee's and purchase a copy of 'Ancient Harmony Revived'

Debate in the United States Senate.

The Ten Regiment Bill.

January 13, 1848.

MR CRITTENDEN

Do you suppose that, if you annex to the American Union eight millions of people backed by the millions of colored men, in those countries, they will remain idle spectators of the proceedings of this government, stimulated as they will be by the thousands of the most fanatical at least What then, must become of that peculiar institutions of ours which has existed for so many years in this country? You answer me that you will not suffer that institution to be disturbed The honorable Senator from Maryland said, you will not suffer the right to hold colored men in slavery to be discussed No sir, but how will you prevent it when these men of the abolitionists of American Union and these Mexican States shall have become American States? You will be voted down — Your institutions will be voted down, and you may, and probably will send the Union to atoms! These are the legitimate results of your annexation of Mexico, and you may as well take the opportunity to meet them at once If you do not fear such a result, wide your armed emigration, but if you believe that it will lead to this pause with me and arrest these proceedings

My honorable friend from Maryland, in the progress of the discussion alluded to the irrevenues of Mexico, and said that he thought the Mexican army, might be hereafter supported out of the Mexican revenues. I do not propose to discuss the financial questions connected with this bill at length though I do invoke the serious attention of the American Senate as an honorable Senator has already done to the enormous sum which must be produced by adding twenty or thirty millions annually to our already enormous expenses, these expenses which we do now incur and are bound to incur I say beyond, because I wish it to be understood that I vote supplies, and I take it for granted that others are equally resolved to vote them for as long as any army remains there

In so far as my vote will go, to vote the men I do not vote one dollar for the troops, and do every thing in my power as may be necessary to maintain the honor of the American army in a just cause But, there I stop and I say with the farmers whom you have there and the twenty thousand men whom you have a right now by law to recruit your further progress in carrying the principle for this war shall be arrested so far as my vote will go to resist it Should any real danger to our army ever require more men, I would go with them but now it is evident that you have no occasion for any more troops for any legitimate purpose of the kind Looking to the financial question, the honorable Senator from Maryland observed that he had no fear, should not encounter any difficulty in sustaining the army in Mexico, because he thought the revenues of Mexico would be sufficient for that purpose

Sir, I beg to take issue with him upon this point The whole revenue of Mexico, as he said, was but twenty one million dollars, when in her best and palmiest state I am now, as Gen Scott tells you almost annihilated, he who best knows its resources is owing you to this information Estimate the revenue to be twenty one million dollars, would that be at all adequate to support an army of 70 000 men? Sir if you look at the official documents which have been sent to us by the Secretary of War you will see that it will be entirely inadequate to defray half the enormous expenses to which we should be subjected But what is meant by the honorable Senator from Maryland? Does he desire to take every dollar from Mexico and prevent her from supporting any government? What policy would there be in that— We want to deal with the government of Mexico, yet we desire that government from time to time—keeping it up as it has been said, in perpetual motion We drive them continually from place to place, and yet we expect to treat with a government thus in motion and from which we have taken every dollar of its revenue Is there wisdom in this? Is it not in fact an effectual obstruction to obtaining any treaty? I must end on the other considerations of the supreme duty and independence of that nation You will by a mass of population assisted over an immense region without a government! Is it because you will not permit them to have one, and do you expect to obtain a treaty a peace? You are to beat the and give them what terms and in every way punish them, and you say you are to do it for the purpose of preserving up honorable peace, You sir, I hope nothing to do with the question of humanity as involved in the matter, but I put it to the honorable Senators on the other side, is this good policy? Is it expedient Are you resolved never to permit Mexico to have a government at that has treaty with you? If you send down thirty thousand more men than these bills call for, I am safe to say that there can be an independent government in Mexico

In reference to the suggestion, sir which has cost the idea that Mexico is to be annexed to this country as a province, I wish to say but a few words I do it that every statesman, who reflects on the subject, will agree with me that it is utterly impossible for as long to hold that country and province If you annex it to the American Republic in any form is final destiny is fixed and certain Your own institutions, your sense of justice, your love of the great principle of human liberty, will compel you to admit it on equality as to the Union Hold it as a province like one of the despotic governments of Europe Hold a country which was once a republic but as a province enslaved and enslaved by a foreign republic! It is in vain, the design altogether improbable It cannot be entertained by an American statesman for a moment Depend upon it sir you cannot evade the great question Now is the time to say whether you will admit Mexico into the American Union or not

I do not propose, Mr President, to review the ground which was so ably taken by the honorable Senator from Kentucky, who had preceded me in the debate in reference to the existing army in the field, the number of troops in Mexico and their efficiency for all legitimate purposes in this war I have seen the report of the Adjutant General, and I presume that every honorable Senator has had the report upon his table It appears by it (for all will hardly read over or carry records for the purpose of confirming what has been stated (ready) that the aggregate regular and volunteer forces in Mexico independent of the Michigan regiment and the Alabama and Mississippi troops which have not gone to Mexico, amount to forty three thousand five hundred and thirty nine men The Michigan, Alabama, and Mississippi troops will raise the number above 45,000 men There was great propriety, I think, on the suggestion of the Senator from Kentucky, to add to the number (45 000 men) the five thousand sailors and marines, now in Mexico, to ascertain the entire effective force now in Mexico

There are then, sir, by a late calculation, already 50 000 men in Mexico According to the letter which was read by the Honorable Chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, Gen Scott considered that force sufficient, not only for the legitimate purposes of the war but also for holding all the Capitals of all the States of the Mexican Confederation, all its provinces towns, and for the garrison for the purpose also of seizing all the revenues of the nation, and of drawing the Central Government to fresh places of peace, "Keeping it in constant motion," in other words, that the force was sufficient according to the judgment of the Commanding General, to maintain the sovereignty of Mexico. Why then do you grant more? on what ground do you base the requisition for 10,000 additional troops when you have already a force adequate according to the Commanding General, for the subjugation of the whole country? If you send these 10,000 additional troops there, you will have 60,000 additional mouths to feed, greatly increasing the difficulties of the Commander-in-chief in the field, if not rendering them altogether impracticable You will thus raise the price of supplies by increasing the demand for them.

At the same time, your army becomes more exposed to the attacks of the garrison, sickness and fatigue, places of strength, you must leave in the rear of the army for the protection of the line of communication, and of many a great portion of them but I keep in the great Capital of that Republic, and the others, diffused and scattered among the principal towns In fact, sir, the difficulties which must inevitably surround an army in such circumstances the danger not merely from disease and the climate but from that military misdirection into which they would be so likely to fall, when they have no enemy to encounter in the field Add to the idea of fighting any more battles in Mexico that I hold to be perfectly preposterous Battles with whom? A single regiment, six, of volunteers, would be sufficient at this very moment, to defeat any Mexican forces that could probably be brought into the field What is here in Mexico that has under him or has the last expectation of having under him, any considerable Mexican force? No one Santa Anna has a few guerrilla scamps him, assassins and cut-throats but they, like assassins and cut-throats in other parts of the world, are fleeing before our regular forces, and dare not face them, and never will they dare face any army there

I conclude, then, Mr President, that if a case could possibly be stated in which an American Congress would be justified in withholding its consent to an Executive application for more troops, that case is now before us There is some individuals who seem to think that no possible emergency can arise in which a patriotic statesman can withhold his vote for furnishing supplies of men or money during a state of war With all such persons I beg most respectfully to differ, and am quite willing, if gentlemen desire, to measure patriotism with them on this very question We are placed here as guardians, in some sense, of the lives of the American people, and from our age—as these are many grey headed to be seen in this chamber, it is expected of us that, as men in whom the heyday of the blood is gone and wane upon the judgment, we shall restrain the impulses which prompt others to rush to every battle-field when there is no occasion whatever for their services

Sir, is it true that a man cannot vote against a bill to send additional troops to the field, unless he be an enemy, a Mexican at heart an enemy to his country? No such assertion as that was made by my honorable friend from Maryland, (Mr Johnson), but just the reverse He did justice to the motives of those who vote against the measure But such language I have, been from the lips of others, and do it without disposing it and to others I shall vote, I trust from a high sense of public duty, and I say that in this case I ought with no proper cry depart upon the friends of the Executive, that he desires, by the passage of this bill, to get a large army of military officer holders to elect or vote for him party on the next Presidential campaign I might make such a charge against him with much more propriety than the charge to which I have alluded, can be directed against gentlemen not disposed to vote in favor of this bill It is ten regiment bill passes the President will have the appointment of five hundred and forty odd commissioned officers

The Executive has already exercised more patronage than any of his predecessors in office

This war calling into existence a mighty army of 70,000 men, has given him more patronage, independently of other considerations, than any President ever exercised before him Well, if patronage be an object to the Executive may he not well be satisfied I will not I shall make an attack upon the Chief Magistrate, of my country make no charge against him that it is his object to carry this bill through the halls of Congress, in order that he may obtain that patronage but, I am one of those who are very fearful and jealous of Executive power and Executive patronage I have lived long enough and seen enough here to satisfy me, that there is imminent danger to our institutions from the very source I will not, where there is the slightest danger to be apprehended from it, lend my aid to increase that Executive patronage Sir, the framers of the republic, when about to make the Federal Constitution had learned and just such fears as I entertain on this great question They had learnt all the great temptations to which the Executive would be exposed, to increase his power and patronage, figuratively bella, might lead him to defeat the settlement of our Government with large powers and to protract any war in which we might be engaged, so as to prevent a peace Reasoning upon the subject in the abstract, and without reference to any particular individual the framers of the Constitution thought that such a danger existed, and James Madison was one of the very men who, apprehending danger from this source stepped in the Convention which made the Constitution, to guard against it by removing from the President even the qualified control which, the Senate in the formation of treaties of peace, reserving that power to the hands of the Senate

Let me read from the proceedings of that convention, the passages which bear on this point, as they are quite pertinent to the present occasion You will find them under date of the — of September, 1787, page 536 of the Madison Papers,

"Mr MADISON moved to substitute concurrence of two-thirds of the Senate to make treaties of peace without the concurrence of the President. The President, he said would necessarily derive so much power and importance from a state of war that he might be tempted or authorized, to impede a treaty of peace.

"Mr BUTLER seconded the motion.

"Mr GORHAM thought the security unnecessary as the means of carrying on the war would not be in the hands of the President, out of the Legislature.

"Mr BUTLER was for making the motion as a necessary security against ambitious and corrupt Presidents He mentioned the late perfidious policy of the Stadtholder in Holland and the artifices of the Duke of Marlborough to prolong the war of which he had the management."

Sir, Mr Madison's motion failed, and we have no resource against the evil he designed to prevent, but in the suggestion of Mr Gorham

It is evident, then, that the fathers of the constitution contemplated the very step which we are now to take, and subject to our own views and judgments we can approve of the objects for which the war in Mexico is waged—on them we can agree with the President in his allocution as announced in that portion of his message in which he declares that he will make no peace unless it give him all the Californias and New Mexico—unless we concur in that ultimatum we are bound as honorable men, to refuse him any more men for the purposes he has avowed In so refusing to grant him any more men for the prosecution of the war with such objects, I hold myself as acting in the very spirit of the Constitution, and according to the requirements of the fathers who made it

Mr President, the honorable Chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, when he introduced this bill to the consideration of the Senate, submitted with it some remarks to which I desire to invite your attention. That I may not misquote or misrepresent the honorable Senator I will read from his speech he published by the Reporter of the Debates.

"In presenting this bill I do not propose to touch any of the disputed topics, which divide the two great parties, under the banner of one or the other of which, every citizen of our country is arrayed. And I hope those it introduced at this to be distinguished be others I had hoped this I have, the incidental discussion which upon a day or two since upon the question of taking up this bill, that there existing subjects would be considered for such opportunity, and that the proposition now submitted would be considered upon their ordinary merits, taking it for granted, that the propriety of raising the additional force required would not be controverted. I have well aware, that we must [illegible] discussion of the origin of the war, in Congress, as elsewhere, and of the [illegible] of the Mexican Government [illegible] But I [illegible] that [illegible] and [illegible] to prohibit [illegible] the attempt, I must be permitted to say that [illegible] regarded, for I consider the general topics and [illegible] discussion of questions unnecessary."

Cod Liver Oil and its evidence that the blood is encumbered with morbid humors, which not only render the circulation sluggish and unequal, but prevent a proper supply of the vital fluid to the extremities. Hence cold hands of the hands and feet, accompanied with chilliness, headache, and many other unpleasant complaints

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are one of the best preventatives in the world against Cold Feet, because they not only cleanse the blood from those impurities which are the cause, but they impart an energy to the circulation which carries it with vigor to every part of the system.

NOW FOR SALE by Gilmer Gilbert, in the short space of six months in the largest number ever sold by myself in this city. This Stove is not equalled by any other stove in the United States, and the unparalleled sales that have met with fully bespeak its unrivalled merits.

HOUSE-KEEPERS should be sure and examine this stove before purchasing elsewhere, which has been the means of saving several thousand house-keepers the trouble. It has more real and useful improvements than all others combined. The fire-brick Oven-top has proved to be of great value in absorbing the steam and causing the bread to rise and bake light, equal to any house brick oven) The brick is found to be more durable than the iron top. It also economizes the heat around the oven, and a much more even bake is produced in this stove than any other stove known. It has a most perfect arrangement for roasting in front. The Summer arrangement for cooking, broiling, tea urn, &c is complete. The grate clears itself, discharging the ashes into the ash-pit. The flues are large, and so arranged as not to fill up with ashes It is surprising to see how small an amount of fuel it requires to perform so great a variety of cooking. Its inside appearance substantial construction, and general good qualities, have set it forth to be

TO THE PUBLIC.

IT is well known that there is secreted in the stomach, a fluid which is called Gastric Juice, that the food when taken into the stomach is acted upon by this Gastric Juice, which is now converted into a pulpy substance called Chyme; this passes into the upper portion of the intestinal canal, there becomes mixed with Bile and Pancreatic Juice, and is by medicinal men termed Chyle; a portion of which is in a fit state to be, and is taken up by small vessels called Lacteals, carried into the system, and converted into Blood. The food after being so changed, becomes assimilated, gives nourishment, and supplies the waste of the body; this is the process and effect of Digestion.

How important therefore, that the digestive organs perform their functions properly! There are also, unsurmountable sympathies existing between the Dyspeptic Stomach and distant parts of the body, some few of the effects of which are here given—Sick Head ache, Nausea and Vomiting, Low Spirits, Despair, Mental Derangement, Irregularity of Pulse, Palpitation of the Heart, Difficulty of Breathing often leading the patient or his friends to suspect incurable Organic Disease; all of which might have been prevented by timely attention to Dyspeptic symptoms, and proper treatment. It should also be known, that these troubles not unfrequently arise as the effect of disturbances of the Digestive Organs, when the ordinary Dyspeptic symptoms are not discoverable, and should be treated accordingly. The deplorable effect of a disregard to these important truths, it is indeed melancholy to contemplate.

A consideration of these facts, and observation for more than a quarter of a century in Chronic Diseases, their rise, progress and end, have led the Proprietor to an anxious inquiry, whether there is in the whole catalogue of medicine, a combination which is better fitted than all others to remove the far more common causes of these dreadful maladies. The result of this research, and much experience, is now offered with great confidence to the public—a

HOLDEN'S

Alterative and Tonic Mixture,

as the best combination known for cleansing the unhealthy secretions of the stomach, and giving strength to that organ, and for removing many troubles attributed to impurity of the blood

In the cure of Dyspepsia it possesses great power, preventing a healthy action of the stomach and correcting a vitiated state of the fluids concerned in digestion, thus removing the cause of many disturbances which are known to arise from this disease.

Its action is that of a mild Alterative and Tonic, restoring health and strength often without producing any sensible evacuation, and without leaving behind any unpleasant effect on the constitution.

By its use the Appetite becomes regular and good, Digestion perfect. Sick Head-ache and many nervous disturbances growing out of imperfect digestion are generally cured Persons of debilitated constitutions become healthy and strong by its use

By reason of the sympathy between the stomach and the skin, many diseases of the latter grow out of a morbid action of the former, even when the ordinary symptoms of Dyspepsia are wanting and are cured by this medicine.

Many troubles of children, supposed to arise from worms, are caused by a deranged state of the stomach, and are removed by its use.

Persons, both adult and children, left feeble by protracted illness, on the same principle are restored to health and vigor by taking it,

It contains no poisonous ingredient, and cannot in any case do harm.

Vegetable Interna Remedy

or A Cure for Life Secured.

For the cure of Piles, Inflammation of the Liver and Spleen, Inflammation, Soreness and Weakness of the Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Bladder, Inflammatory and Mercurial Rheumatism; Impurity of Blood; Weakness and Infirmities of the Spine; and for the relief of Married Ladies.

THE VEGETABLE PILE ELECTUARY, invented by Dr. A. Upham, a distinguished Physician of New York city, is the only really successful remedy for that dangerous and distressing complaint, the Piles, ever offered to the American public.

Much value is in an INTERNAL REMEDY—not an external application, and will cure any case of Piles, either bleeding or blind, internal or external and probably the only thing that will. There is no mistake about it. It is a positive cure—speedy and permanent It is also a convenient medicine to take, and improves the general health in a remarkable manner.

Each box contains twelve doses, at $1-3 cts per dose. It is very mild in its operation, and may be taken in cases of the most acute inflamation without danger.—All external applications are in the highest degree disagreeable, inconvenient and offensive; and from the very nature of the disease, temporary in their effects This Medicine attacks the disease at its source, and, REMOVING THE CAUSE, renders the cure CERTAIN and PERMANENT.

INFLAMMATORY DISEASES.

Although the ELECTUARY was originally prepared for the cure of Piles, yet it has proved itself a medicine far superior to all others, in all diseases of an inflammatory character, with a determination of blood to any particular part or organ. In inflamation and congestion of the Liver and Spleen; Inflamation, Soreness and Ulceration of the Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Bladder; in inflammatory and mercurial Rheumatism, it is the Best Medicine ever discovered.

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD.

For all impurities of the Blood, arising from the imprudent use of Mercury, or other causes; for all diseases of the Skin, and Scrofulous Affections; in all cases where the blood is powerfully determined to the head, producing dizziness and dimness, DR. UPHAM'S ELECTUARY is entirely our relied.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

Married Ladies are almost invariably subject to that painful and injurious disease, the PILES, with consequent inflamation of the stomach, Bowels and Spine, weakness of the back, flow of blood to the head, &c— The Electuary is perfectly safe for Pregnant Ladies, and the most powerful Cathartic that can possibly be made, as it will not only remove a Piles and all its concomitant diseases, WITHOUT PAIN or IRRITATION, but will ensure an easy time, a safe delivery, and a speedy restoration to the sufferer.

CURES FOR LIFE GUARANTEED.

The Electuary contains NO MINERAls Medicines: no Aloes, Colocynth, Gamboge, or other powerful and irritating purgative. No fear of taking cold while under its influence, no change in diet necessary. If taken according to the directions, A CURE FOR LIFE IS GUARANTEED.

Pamphlets giving valuable information respecting this Medicine, may be had of Agents, gratis.

GREAT SUCCESS OF UPHAM'S
FILE ELECTUARY.

Portland, Me., March 14, 1847.

Dr. UPHAM—My dear Sir:—I cannot express to you my concern and heartfelt thanks for the wonderful cure I have experienced by the use of your truly valuable Pile Electuary I have been a perfect martyr to the Bleeding Piles for 10 years past, so much so that I became reduced to almost a skeleton, with loss of appetite, and general derangement of the digestive organs. My eyes also became affected, and in fact I was a miserable object. I was obliged to give up my business, had tried all kinds of medicine, had the best advice the Doctors in Boston and else place could afford, spent much money—and twice submitted to painful operations. I had become perfectly tired of life, and at the suggestion of my friends I was induced to try a box of your medicine. The first I found to relieve me slightly; until I persevered, and purchased a second, and I assure you, when I got half through, I found myself getting well, still I kept on, and now I am a well man. My dear Sir, language cannot express the heartfelt thanks that I am once more restored to health, and now in a condition to support my large family, dependent on me.

You can use this letter as you please.

Yours respectfully, SAMUEL CHANDLER.

From CONSTANT GUILLOU, Esq., Attorney at Law, and Notary Public, Philadelphia.

"From personal acquaintance with Jules Hauel—an experienced and fashionable Perfumer and Chemist—I was prepared to appreciate the numerous testimonials in favor of his different fashionable preparations. On trial of them in my own family, and some of their personally, I have more than realized them favorable anticipations—they are, what they profess to be, scientifically prepared and compounded. I have at all times since my experience, been convinced of the great merit of the Eau Lustral Hair Restorative, Shaving Cream, Nymph Soap, and, in fact, all the popular preparations of Mr. Hauel.

It is with the greatest pleasure that I can recommend the above articles to all of my numerous friends and the public. They are, in their way, invaluable.

CONSTANT GUILLOU."

From DANIEL J. DARTNELL, Esq., Attorney at Law, Consul General of Peruvian States, Vice Consul of Austria, Sardinia, Portugal and Tuscany.

"To Mr. JULES HAUEL

Sir—Though I have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with you, yet a sense of duty to yourself and the public generally, constrains me to bear my unsolicited testimony in favor of your different fashionable preparations. On trial of them in my own family, and some of them personally, I do positively declare that they are what they profess to be, skillfully prepared and compounded. I am convinced of the great worth or merit of the Eau Lustral Hair Restorative, Shaving Cream, Nymph Soap and Rose Tooth Paste.—I am fully satisfied of their intrinsic worth, and do heartily recommend them to all for the use and purpose they are intended: Nothing can equal the beauty and lustre imparted to the hair by the use of the Eau Lustral Hair Restorative. It invigorates the hair and promotes its growth. The Shaving Cream is unsurpassed and decidedly emollient, being a fine and highly emollient composition—it does not smart, or irritate the skin; while the Nymph Soap operates beautifully upon the pores of the skin, and cleanses it from all impurities. The Rose Tooth Paste imparts to the teeth a pearly whiteness, and is well calculated to preserve the teeth and gums from decay. Thanking in their way invaluable.

"I have seen some of my friends who have used your Vegetable Liquid Hair-Dye; its effects is really a wonder. It dyes the Hair in an indelible manner in a few minutes, and the color of the hair is really beautiful, and never will detect the artificial colors, as it is a natural. Yours &c. DANIEL J. DESMOND.

Dr. Townsend's SARSAPARILLA,

THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

This extract is put up in quart bottles; it is six times cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold. It cures disease without vomiting, purging, sickening or debilitating the patient.

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other medicines is, while it eradicates disease it invigorates the body. It is one of the very best Fall and Winter medicines ever known, it not only purifies the whole system and strengthens the person but it creates new, pure and rich blood; a power possessed by no other medicine. And in this lies the grand secret of its wonderful success. It has performed within the past two years, more than 35,000 extraordinary cures of diseases, at least 20,000 of these were considered incurable.

More than 3000 cases of Chronic Rheumatism,
9000 cases of Dyspepsia,
4000 cases of General Debility and Want of Energy,
7000 cases of the different Female Complaints,
2000 cases of Scrofula,
1500 cases of the Liver Complaint,
2200 cases of Diseases of the Kidneys and Dropsy,
8000 cases of Consumption, and thousands of cases of diseases of the blood, viz—Ulcers, erysipelas, salt-rheum, pimples on the face, &c., together with numerous cases of nine headache, pain in the side and chest, spinal affection, &c. &c.

Thus, we are aware, must appear incredible, but we have letters from physicians and our agents from all parts of the United States, informing us of extraordinary cures. R. Van Buskirk, Esq., one of the most respectable druggists in Newark, N J, informs us that he can refer to more than 150 cases in that place alone. There are thousands of cases in the City of New York which we will refer to with p
